

Appendix 2: Bangor to Bethesda to Llanberis

Photos 1a &b – Fingerpost at start of the Trail at Porth Penrhyn and new Snowdonia Slate Trail bench. Grid Ref: SH 59219,72609

Photos 3 & 4 – at start of Trail at Porth Penrhyn, Bangor temporary closure of route & diversion, re-opened by summer 2024. Grid Ref: SH 59224,72583 & Grid Ref SH 59279, 72375

Photos 23 & 24 – Approx 150m section requiring some vegetation particularly overhead height clearance between Bangor & Halfway Bridge. Grid Ref: SH 59863, 7002.

Photos 33, 35-37 – Slate and iron gates along route between A55 and Halfway Bridge between Bangor and Rachub. Either side of centre grid ref: SH 61914,68673

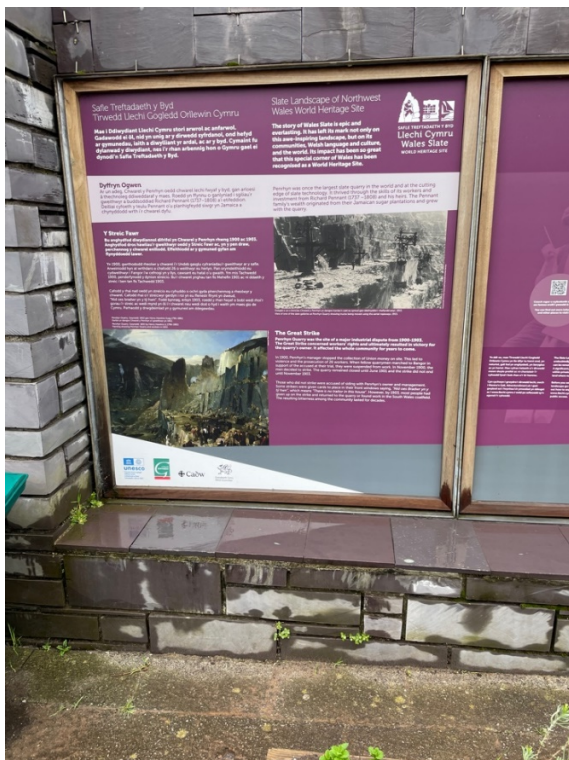

Photo 72, newer kissing gate en-route just south of Rachub. Grid Ref: SH 62679,67804

Photo 78 - Steps down to Bethesda from Rachub, Grid Ref: SH 62532,67109

Photos 82, 83 & 84 – Snowdonia Slate Trail bench at Bethesda with slate industry board behind bench at Bethesda (Grid Ref:SH62396,66709), information board in Llanberis near Slate Museum. (SH 58560,60301) and info board re: slate incline near Slate museum at (SH 58521,60543)

Photos 106, 113, 114,115 – Very wet section over open moor at Gwaen Gynfi south of Bethesda. Approx 800m section around centre point Grid Ref: SH60499,69021

